DEATH SUDDENLY CLAIMS J. W. WINTER;
STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY AT HIS HOME

Almost without a warning, John W. Winter, better known among his many friends in Honolulu as "Jack" Winter, passed away about five minutes past 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon as the result of a stroke of apoplexy.

Death came to Mr. Winter at his residence on King street. He had not been at all well for the last few weeks but no one suspected that anything of a serious nature was the matter. He had been visiting at the house of Harry Vida on Sunday evening and at that time was evidently in excellent health, complaining of no indisposition and being in the best of spirits.

Mrs. Winter noticed during Sunday night that her husband breathed in an unusually heavy manner but she was not alarmed at all, attributing it to nothing of a grave character. Early yesterday morning Mr. Winter was still breathing very heavily; later, when the morning meal was prepared and Mr. Winter had not yet risen, one of the children entered the sleeping apartment to awaken the father. The child's efforts proved fruitless and Mrs. Winter endeavored to rouse her husband, but, being unable to do so, she became alarmed and sent for Dr. Sinclair.

Dr. Sinclair called in Dr. Cooper in consultation, realizing the nature of the trouble. Mr. Winter remained in almost the same condition, breathing with more difficulty as time went on until 1:05 p. m. yesterday, when the spirit fled.

The decedent leaves a wife and three children, was 44 years of age, and was born in Knoxville, Tenn. He was educated at Knox College in Galesburg, Ill., where he lived for many years, coming to the Hawaiian Islands fifteen years ago. He came here to accept a position as bookkeeper with William G. Irwin & Co. and afterwards became interested in the Hollister Drug Co., of which he was secretary and bookkeeper.

Mr. Winter, though of a somewhat retiring disposition, made a host of friends in this country. An affectionate husband, a devoted father, and a man respected and admired by all, his death is deeply mourned and regretted.

Messrs. Hendry and Wagner have charge of the arrangements for the funeral, which is to take place at 11 o'clock this morning from the residence on King street. The following gentlemen will act as the pallbearers: A. de S. Canavarro, Capt. Christensen, Henry Vida, W. Porter Boyd, Mr. Pfluger, Chas. Creighton, Mr. Wond and H. M. Whitney, Jr.

Japanese Satisfied.

Although the Japanese laborers on Heela plantation went back to work Saturday morning after their warlike demonstration of the night before, about seventy of them signified their intention of quitting work yesterday morning. It was found that one of the number had sworn out a warrant for the arrest of Luna Jacobson for his admonitory handling of a Japanese for smoking in the cane field as told in yesterday's Advertiser. Jacobson thought the simplest method of settling the affair was to plead guilty when tried for assault and battery at the Kaneohe Police Court and he did so, being fined $5 and costs. The seventy Japanese went back to work perfectly satisfied when Jacobson was fined.

The authorities at the Kalihii detention camp have notified fifty-four opium-users, all Chinese except one, to hire a house by the first of May or move.

FUNERAL OF LATE
JAMES CAMPBELL

Impressive Religious Services at the Family Residence on Emma Street Yesterday.

The funeral of the late James Campbell took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, Emma street, and was very largely attended by sympathizing friends. The remains enclosed in a handsome black casket lay in the center of the large parlors, and were surrounded by the most beautiful floral offerings. The widow and family occupied seats at the head of the casket.

The service was read by the Bishop of Honolulu, assisted by Rev. V. H. Kiteat. A quartette consisting of Miss Kulumanu Ward, Miss von Holt, Messrs. Geo. E. Smithies and Ernest Ross, sang two hymns, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," accompanied on the piano by Wray Taylor. The remains were interred in the family vault Nuanu Cemetery. The pallbearers were Godfrey Brown, J. O. Carter, J. M. Dowsett, Samuel Parker, H. von Holt and A. S. Cunha.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.

Quick Relief From Pain.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

The Boston officers of the Charles Brewer Estate have written to the Hawaiian Trust & Investment Co. to express their sympathy for those who have been at the front in the fight against the plague, and authorizing their representatives here to make a rebate to their tenants of 10 per cent of their monthly rents for January and February.
